

APPLICATION FORM

GLSE Summer Research Project Studentship (2018)

Eligibility: interest in future graduate training; must have at least a B+ (GPA of 3.3) average or higher and are responsible for securing a position with a Department of Physiology supervisor; available to work for the 12-16 week period (exact dates to be determined between you and your supervisor); must attend weekly seminars and participate in the mini-conference generally held the first week of August.

Student Name:	Student Number:
Student E-mail:	Telephone Number:
Address:
Current Status: University (if not U of T)	Current Year of Study:
Program(s)/subject posts:	CGPA:
List Relevant Lab Courses and Research Experience:
Statement of research interest and future goals: (max 300 characters):

The student must complete an activity report on the research experience outlining the research project is to be submitted at the end of the award period no later than September 27, 2018 to the department.

Research Title:
Supervisor Name:	Supervisor Signature:
Lab Address:
Start Date: _____ (12 weeks minimum)	End Date: _____
<table border="1"> <tr> <td>GLSE support:</td> <td>$ 4,800</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Supervisor (minimum $0)</td> <td>$</td> </tr> <tr> <td>TOTAL FUNDING FOR STUDENT</td> <td>$</td> </tr> </table>		GLSE support:	$ 4,800	Supervisor (minimum $0)	$	TOTAL FUNDING FOR STUDENT	$
GLSE support:	$ 4,800
Supervisor (minimum $0)	$
TOTAL FUNDING FOR STUDENT	$

For research involving human subjects, animals, radiation and/or biosafety, the approval number and expiry date must be listed: _____

PLEASE NOTE:

- An investigator may submit ONLY ONE student, irrespective of cross-appointments
- Students may apply through ONLY ONE department and ONE supervisor from Physiology
- It is the responsibility of the supervisor to ensure that their student is covered by the appropriate protocol