

2017- 2018 QEII-GSST: Physiology

of Awards	Award	Eligibility
1	Queen Elizabeth II / R. Howard Webster Foundation/Genesis Research Foundation/Physiology Graduate Scholarships in Science and Technology	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Graduate students registered in the Department of Physiology who are supervised by faculty members with appointments in both the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology and the Department of Physiology. 2. Graduate students enrolled in the Department of Physiology engaged in research in the field of Obstetrics and Gynecology.
1	Queen Elizabeth II / Physiology/Medicine Graduate Scholarships in Science and Technology	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Graduate students registered in the Department of Physiology whose supervisor holds a primary appointment in the Department of Medicine and a cross-appointment in the Department of Physiology 2. Graduate students whose supervisor holds a primary appointment in the Department of Physiology and a cross-appointment in the Department of Medicine. Special Note: Preference will be given to providing this award to a student whose supervisor holds a primary appointment in the Department of Medicine (not to be mistaken with the Faculty of Medicine), and a cross-appointment with the Department of Physiology.

Application Check List

- Step 1: Complete an OGS on-line application by the Deadline: March 31, 2017
<http://www.sgs.utoronto.ca/currentstudents/Pages/Ontario-Graduate-Scholarship.aspx>
- Step 2: Complete the PSL QEII-GSST Cover Page identifying the above award(s) you are applying for and submit it to the Physiology Graduate Program Office (MSB 3209 or 3217) by the Deadline: March 31, 2017.

Please ensure that you meet the award criteria and eligibility before submitting an application.
<http://www.physiology.utoronto.ca/psl-restricted-awards>